this raffle will get them to their goal. The raffle will end on Locust blossom.

There has been no communication with Brocke's on the Rural Community Investment Fund Program Grant, so Mayor Norris requested that it be removed for lack of activity from the unfinished business section.

NEW BUSINESS

Amy Manning with III-A came to the council meeting and gave the annual report. She left the manual for reference. See manual for information.

Angie Coulson was sick, so she did not show up for the Latah Credit union presentation. We did have the booklet they gave to new members. The council discussed the information. Danean city clerk thought there were a lot of pros to having the City's banking in the town of Kendrick. Danean also said we would have to keep the Wells Fargo account open until she gets all the bank accounts statements for the 2025 audit printed or downloaded to the computer for future audit.

Council member Wegner made a motion to read Resolution 287 (Designation of Depository) one time instead of the rule of three and dispensing with the rules. Council member Kochsmeier seconded the motion. All were in favor.

Councilman Seegmiller made a motion to have the Latah Credit Union to be the Financial Depository for the City of Kendrick. There will be three people on the account- Mayor Norris, Danean Schmidt City Clerk/Treasurer and Jesse Wegner Council President. Council member Alexander seconded the motion. All were in favor.
