UNFINISHED BUSINESS

The Lion's club is still working on the Raffle for the clock, should have the money at the end of May.

No news about the Grant opportunity for the pool. Mayor Norris , Ryan Lawrence and Reagan Grabner from Ag West are still working on the grant.

Mayor Norris is working on another Grant (shading for the pool). This will be for cancer prevention. Place to sit out of direct sunlight.

New Business

WWTP discussion and Decision, Stillman suggested for the City sign the DEQ grant application, so we don't lose the money. This will make sure if we need it we can use it, but if we do not need it the money can be given back without any penalties. Still hoping to get Grants to fund the project.

Council member Kochsmeier made motion to consent Mayor Norris to sign CWSRF loan offer from DEQ $7,383,448.00. Council member Schiemer seconded the motion All were in favor.

The bid for the 1997 flatbed chevy 3500 was opened by Danean Schmidt at 7 pm. There was only one bid submitted. Bradley Stout put in a bid for $556.30. Council member Kochsmeier accepted that bid. Council member Schiemer seconded the motion All were in favor. There was no bid put in for the 2002 Chevrolet, so we will wait to see if the City receives any bids for the next meeting in June.

Council member Schiemer made the motion to hire Karen Kimbley as a Pool Clerk for the 2026 Pool season. Council member Chilberg seconded the motion. All were in favor.

Mayor Norris went to the KJ Recreation Board meeting and gave the council an update. They gave the City $5,000.00 for the Pool fund.
